PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for more than three-quarters of a century, the Salvation Army has been a friend, a comforter, and a fountain of material help and of renewed hope for millions of American men, women, and children, regardless of race or creed; and

WHEREAS, the guiding principles—spiritual and humanitarian—by which the welfare and religious institutions of the Salvation Army are conducted, have become deeply rooted in American life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the period of May 20--27, 1956 as

SALVATION ARMY WEEK

and do urge all citizens of this state to become familiar with the valuable work of the Salvation Army in our state so that they can help to extend its usefulness to all who are in need.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 18th day of May, 1956.
